Truck crashes into Līhu'e restaurant

LĪHU'E – No injuries were reported after a truck crashed into the Tip Top Café in Līhu'e Friday afternoon.

Shortly before 4 p.m., a white Ford pickup truck was southbound on Akahi Street in Līhu'e, when it turned into a parking stall fronting the Tip Top Café restaurant and crashed into the building. The restaurant was not open at the time, and no patrons were inside.

The driver of the truck, a 56-year-old woman of Ōma'o, was assisted out of her vehicle by police and firefighters responding to the scene. She did not report any injuries from the collision.

Damages to the exterior and interior of the restaurant, and the front of the vehicle were reported.

No arrests or citations have yet been made.

The investigation remains ongoing.
